Soroptimist Mission Statement

Soroptimist International transforms the lives and status of women and girls through education, empowerment and enabling opportunities.

The principles of Soroptimist are to strive for:

The advancement of the status of women;
High ethical standards;
Human rights for all;
Equality, development and peace;
The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace.

Soroptimists' signature project is Live Your Dream: Education and Training Awards for Women® which assists women who provide the primary source of financial support for their families by giving them the resources they need to improve their education, skills and employment prospects. Each year, nearly $1.9 million in education grants are awarded to more than 1,300 women, many of whom have overcome enormous obstacles including poverty, domestic violence, trafficking, death of a spouse, and/or drug and alcohol abuse.

Our name, 'Soroptimist' is a coined phrase from the Latin 'soror' and 'optima,' meaning best for women. Soroptimist are truly women at their best, who are doing their.....

Special Agent Chelsea Maone
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Los Angeles/Lancaster Resident Agency

Chelsea Malone has been a Special Agent (SA) with the FBI since April 2022. Since graduating from Quantico, Agent Malone has been assigned to the Los Angeles Field Office, Lancaster Resident Agency, where she focuses on Violent Crimes Against Children and Human Trafficking in Santa Clarita, Palmdale, Lancaster, and everywhere in between.

Prior to joining the FBI, Agent Malone worked as a Research & Patent Development scientist with a focus on biochemistry. SA Malone graduated with a bachelor's degree in biomedical science from the University of Central Florida and master's degree in medical science from the University of South Florida Morsani College of Medicine.

During her time in the FBI, Agent Malone has been recognized with several awards, to include being a recipient of the United States Attorney's Office Law Enforcement Awards in March 2025 and the FBI Medal of Excellence in June 2025.

Shantel Ortiz-Cesario
Expert Survivor Consultant
Rescued to Rescue

Shantel Ortiz-Cesario currently serves as an Expert Survivor Consultant, where she uses her lived experience to help guide and educate agencies, organizations and professionals working with youth who are at risk of being exploited. She also trains staff and advocates on trauma-informed and survivor-centered approaches to ensure that care is both effective and compassionate. In addition, she facilitates survivor-led groups, creating safe spaces for healing, empowerment, and connection.

During the past five years, Shantel dedicated her work to mentoring justice-involved youth and supporting community efforts focused on prevention, intervention, and restorative healing.
